SIGMAROC PLC
(‘SigmaRoc’, the ‘Group’)

Private Investor Event at the Isokon

Following the recent publication of H1 results, as well as several key developments in the Group, SigmaRoc is happy to invite its private investors to a talk held on 20 October 2022 at 19:00PM BST at the Isokon in London.

The Isokon is a Grade 1 listed building and significant in the history of Architecture and concrete use in residential real estate. Also, the former residence of great designers from the Bauhaus school of art. The Group’s management will present an update on its progress, in particular in relation to its ultra-low carbon concrete products.

In attendance will be David Barrett (Chairman), Max Vermorken (CEO) and Michael Roddy (Managing Director of PPG).

Places will be restricted to 25 and will be offered on a first-come first-serve basis.

Please email ir@sigmaroc.com to register.

Max Vermorken, CEO of SigmaRoc, commented:

“We are pleased to hold an investor event at the landmark building which is the Isokon. The Group is constantly developing and analysing a multitude of projects, expansion opportunities and growth initiatives. Having the opportunity to update our private investors, share insights on progress and communicate the board’s continued strong support and enthusiasm for the Group in person will remain central to our investor relations initiatives.”
