- 10.15 be exclusively responsible for establishing the selection criteria, selecting, appointing, and setting the terms of reference for any remuneration consultants who advise the committee.
- 10.16 reviewing the design of all share incentive plans for approval by the Board and shareholders. For any such plans, determining each year whether awards will be made, and if so, the overall amounts of such awards, the individual awards to executive directors and other senior executives and the performance targets to be used;
- 10.17 considering clawback and equivalent arrangements in the event of a significant downturn in performance or impropriety;
- 10.18 preparing for possible questions on remuneration at the annual general meeting and any other shareholder meeting; and
- 10.19 reviewing any issues raised by shareholders at a general meeting.

11. Reporting responsibilities

- 11.1 The chairman of the Remuneration Committee shall report formally to the Board on proceedings after each meeting on all matters within its duties and responsibilities.
- 11.2 The Remuneration Committee shall make whatever recommendations to the Board it deems appropriate on any area within its remit where action or improvement is needed.
- 11.3 The Remuneration Committee shall annually compile a report to Shareholders on its role and activities to be included in the Company's Corporate Governance Report.

12. Others

- 12.1 The Remuneration Committee shall have access to sufficient resources in order to discharge its duties. In the event that the Remuneration Committee determines that it has insufficient resources, it may make a request for additional resources to the Chief Executive Officer. If the request for additional resources is denied, the Remuneration Committee may, if it chooses, make a request to the Board through the office of the Chief Executive Officer. The Board shall convene a Board meeting as soon as reasonably practicable to consider the request.
- 12.2 All members of the Remuneration Committee shall have access to the advice and services of the secretary of the Remuneration Committee with a view to ensuring that procedures of the Remuneration Committee and all applicable rules and regulations are followed.
- 12.3 In the event that the Remuneration Committee or any member of the Remuneration Committee requires access to independent professional advice in connection with its/his/her duties, a request may be made to the Chief Executive Officer. All such requests shall be processed in accordance with the Company's pre-defined procedures for seeking independent professional advice at the Company's expense (as set out in Chapter 5 of this Handbook).
- 12.4 Every member of the Remuneration Committee shall give sufficient time and attention to his/her duties as a member of the Remuneration Committee. He/she shall give the Company the benefit of his skills and expertise through regular attendance and active participation.
- 12.5 The Remuneration Committee shall, at least once a year, review its own performance, constitution, and terms of reference to ensure it is operating at maximum effectiveness and recommend any changes it considers necessary to the Board for approval.
- 12.6 The terms of reference of this committee should be made available for viewing on the Company's website.

13. Authority

- 13.1 The Remuneration Committee is authorised by the Board to investigate any activity within its terms of reference. It is authorised to seek any information it reasonably requires from any employee and all employees are directed to co-operate with any reasonable request made by the Remuneration Committee.

- 13.2 In connection with its duties, the Remuneration Committee is authorised by the Board, at the Company's expense:
 - 13.2.1 to obtain any outside legal or other professional advice; and
 - 13.2.2 within any budgetary constraints imposed by the Board, to appoint remuneration consultants, and to commission or purchase any relevant reports, surveys, or information which it deems necessary to help fulfil its duties.
- 13.3 Disclosure of any appointments (including the fees and services provided) which fall under paragraph 13.2.2 shall be made in full in the Director's Remuneration Report.
